I. SUMMARY

This introductory manifesto (is a work in progress; expect updates soon) was written to influence the greatest of all good actions restarting with but not limited to connecting with people from real life networks specifically familiar faces including the unknown regulars of places frequented. It explains the real revolution, our mission, and history in both the making and in the process of revelation. There is an outline for joining through taking action in the form of writing messages, logging it for everyone gets paid upon legal victory, and more information about applying for open established business positions with payment based on a startup model of performance based payment upon resurrected cash flow etc., and finally information about connecting to stay in the loop.

II. MISSION STATEMENT

Our purpose is for The People comprising humanity, freedom to its core, the naked truth draining the swamp and filling it with real news, freedom of speech and the press, free love, religious freedom and freedom from religion, coexistence and no taxation without representation, ideals set forth by the founding fathers of the free world mostly being rooted in the great United States of America, defending and upholding justice is the Constitution, extending that to human rights for all, protecting the world environment and tackling global climate change, making sure everyone has access to vital necessities being food, clothing, shelter and health care. We are going to accomplish this by any means legal, primarily focused on funding from civil litigation, ensured by peaceful to as necessary action. These are the things that matter, which all humans should care about, and anyone can be an activist rebel with a good cause.

III. BACKGROUND

This is literally a revolution like a modern civil war against oppressive traditions, obsolete culture, and unpopular politics that violate our legal rights. History repeats itself and contemporary issues have yet to be addressed; specifically, abuse of power over Internet/information, and communication technology. The motive for the antagonists are money, control, sex, and power, which are normal, but not justification for violating the rights of and oppressing another being the protagonist who is purely motivated by love, peace, and freedom.

Copyrighted intellectual property and documentation along with talent to produce some mind blowing movies have been accumulating for a lifetime. Prior to filing the first wave of federal lawsuits, an unfinished nearly three hundred page book recording the true history of Russell Rope to date was written and leaked to an unknown degree. Completion and official release have been pending legal conflict resolution. The collection of legal documents and emails easily account for another book or addendum of similar length, and a third could be written about everything else left to your imagination for now, or it might, but nothing is certain other than production has already commenced. The self-made plan is to finish writing the books, and screenplays, possibly an additional documentary, and to produce and direct movies in addition to everything else; new show, daily web, domain name in dispute, etc. on the fly, now and later, in the future, and while continuing to develop and expand, hopefully after legal conflict resolution, but not slowing the roll for stall tactics. Russell Rope is a most ambitious finisher.

There is a tremendous amount of information accessible via RR blog, but it is very important for you to witness the legal information directly linked from this document so you can better understand the claims and obscene violations that are a gross reality and must be both stopped and prevented. Feel not only welcome, but encouraged to connect with any constructive criticism, suggestions, corrections, or questions, but not until after reviewing everything.

I V . SEND COMPLAINTS TO RR GOVERNMENT #Activism

All are welcome to support the rebellion without application, or making service official, or publicly known, and at no expense other than the time you are willing to spend. Trust that this is zero risk and worth the inevitable reward being a percentage of monetary legal winnings going to friends and supporters, with more going to the mission, equity on top of pay for employees, and sharing in the success.

Not limited to the following have intentionally and completely ignored personal complaints for no just cause. Many are liars who lie to get out of lies, but they really end up digging deeper graves; at least for their careers. Criminally neglectful people in positions of authority must not remain in power. Let them know human/civil rights violations and obstruction of justice will not be tolerated; specifically, regarding @RussellRope where #FreeTheOG is for “humanitarian” is the new “american” dream.

The most important thing right now is funding via sales has always been preferable to investors who were not sought until early exponential growth was hacked by the power abusing corporations attempting to force need for investment prior to attempted peonage and theft of intellectual property. Sales is also the only way to get paid until cash flow is resurrected.

VI. $1,000,000 REWARD

The original and still current request for relief from damages was designed with the best overall outcome for all parties involved in mind. Settlement offers have included no arrests, but it is already beyond the point of too much criminal victimization.

- On Top of Your Collecting What They Offered You @ Their Expense
- For Testimony Leading To Indictment & Incarceration

People who personally camera stalked are not eligible for monetary reward on top, but confession and sharing information, considering damages, could secure freedom from criminal prosecution upon discovery.
