29                  NOTICE & REQUEST

30
31                  Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court issue the Statement of Decision required under Code of
32                  Civil Procedure § 632 and California Rules of Court 3.1590, following Defendant's timely Request
33                  for Statement of Decision filed on November 25, 2025.

34
35                  The Court's ruling on November 26, 2025 granted Defendant's Petition to Compel Arbitration.

36
37                  A minute order was entered, but no Statement of Decision has yet been issued.

1 Because the Statement of Decision is legally required — and essential for Plaintiff's forthcoming motion
2 for reconsideration and preservation of appellate rights — Plaintiff requests that the Court promptly
3 enter one.

9 I. A STATEMENT OF DECISION IS MANDATORY WHEN REQUESTED

10

11 Under CCP § 632, where the Court's ruling involves determination of controverted issues of fact, and a
12 party timely requests a Statement of Decision, the Court must issue one. Coinbase filed a timely
13 request. Therefore, a Statement of Decision is required.

18

19 California Rule of Court 3.1590(d):

20 “The court must prepare or order the prevailing party to prepare a proposed statement of 21 decision.”

22

23 No such instruction or draft has yet appeared in the docket.

5 A Statement of Decision is required to:

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

- identify all factual findings
- show which arguments were accepted or rejected
- identify omissions or legal error
- preserve Plaintiff's record for reconsideration
- preserve rights for writ relief under CCP § 1085/1103

15 Without a Statement of Decision, appellate rights are impaired.

16

18 Additionally, Plaintiff anticipates seeking reconsideration based in part on issues of fraud, malice, and

19 discriminatory effect arising from the biometric lockout, none of which were substantively addressed

20 during the hearing. A Statement of Decision is therefore essential to determine whether the Court

21 reached or omitted findings on these material issues, and to ensure Plaintiff can properly frame his

22 motion under CCP § 1008(b).

7                   I, Russell Rope, declare:

8

9                   1. I am the Plaintiff in this action.

10

11                   2. On November 26, 2025, the Court granted Defendant's Petition to Compel Arbitration.

12

13                   3. Defendant filed a Request for Statement of Decision on November 25, 2025.

14

15                   4. As of the date of this filing, no Statement of Decision appears in the docket.

16

17                   5. I intend to file a CCP § 1008(b) Motion for Reconsideration and require the Statement of 18                   Decision to identify the Court's findings and omissions.

19

20                   6. This request is made in good faith.

21

22                   I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true.

PROPOSED ORDER RE: REQUEST FOR ENTRY OF STATEMENT OF DECISION

The Court, having reviewed Plaintiff's Request for Immediate Entry of Statement of Decision, orders as follows:

1. Pursuant to CCP § 632 and CRC 3.1590, the Court will issue a Statement of Decision regarding the November 26, 2025 ruling on Defendant's Petition to Compel Arbitration.
2. The Statement of Decision shall be filed within the time permitted by CRC 3.1590.
3. The prevailing party may be instructed to prepare a proposed Statement of Decision.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
