MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES
STATEMENT OF FACTS

- 2) The honest suspect/defendant did not commit a crime and is the real victim.
- 3) Officers and prosecution are engaging in serious misconduct and criminal behavior.

1 5) The alleged victim lied to LAPD.

2
3 6) LAPD conducted two illegal searches and seizures at the suspect/defendant's residence and
4 the police report is full of discrepancies.

5
6 7) The investigating detective lied and tried to coerce the suspect/defendant then intentionally
7 neglected investigation.

8
9 6)The prosecution has been acting extremely shady, which is also the reason the defendant had 10 to fire the public defender. The DDA/DA office is lying about receipt of email and 11 attachments, stalling, neglecting complaints and requested help both before and after this
12 incident, and they are doing harder prove things to try and mess with the defendant's head; ex)
13 lame fashion statements and excessive and harassing exhibition of power.

15 8) The defendant is a real big deal with valuable intellectual property and a private parking
16 garage. There was no motive for the defendant to commit a crime and serious motive for 17 LADOT/prosecution/etc.

18
19 9) This entire incident was a setup entrapment that failed at generating the desired results, so the 20 LADOT officer lied to get out of being reported.

21
22 10) LADOT intentionally evaded the subpoena because they are trying to cover up their crimes.

23
24 11) LAPD provided a fake copy of the arrest warrant in response to the subpoena. The fake 25 warrant did not have the errors of the original warrant, which the suspect/defendant brought to 26 the attention of all of the officers while they were illegally searching his bedroom.
